- 26.3 Any notice given and any payment made by a Party to the other ("the addressee") which:
- 26.3.1 is delivered by hand during the normal business hours of the addressee at the addressee's Notice Address for the time being shall be presumed, unless the contrary is proved by the addressee, to have been received by the addressee at the time of delivery;

- 26.4 Where, in terms of this Agreement any communication is required to be in writing, the term "writing" shall include communications by e-mail.
- 26.5 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained or implied in this Agreement, a written notice or communication actually received by one of the Parties from another including by way of electronic mail shall be adequate written notice or communication to such Party.

27. Dispute Resolution

- 29.2 The validity and interpretation of this Agreement and the legal relations of the parties hereto will be governed by the internal laws of the State of Georgia, United States of America, without regard to its rules governing conflicts of law. Any claim or cause of action arising from this Agreement will be brought in the state courts in Fulton County, Georgia, or corresponding federal courts, and each party consents to the exclusive venue of such courts. Each party waives their respective defenses of lack of personal jurisdiction and forum non conveniens with respect to such courts

30. Arbitration, Governing Law and Venue – International

- 30.1 This clause 30 is only applicable if the Customer is situated outside of the United States of America.
- 30.2 The validity and interpretation of this Agreement and the legal relations of the parties hereto will be governed by the internal laws of the State of Georgia, United States of America, without regard to its rules governing conflicts of law.
- 30.3 Except as otherwise provided below in this paragraph, all disputes that arise from or relate to this Agreement shall be decided exclusively by binding, non-appealable arbitration in Fulton County, Georgia under the JAMS Comprehensive Arbitration Rules (the "Rules"), provided, however, the Parties may agree in writing to further modify the Rules or the venue of the arbitration. If on advice of counsel the Rules or the venue of the arbitration would cause any arbitral award not to be enforceable in a court having jurisdiction over a Party, Skynamo may on notice to Customer change the Rules or venue of the arbitration, as applicable, in a manner that would cause any resulting award to be enforceable. The dispute shall be decided by a sole arbitrator, who shall be a retired or former judge, or an attorney with at least ten (10) years of experience and be mutually acceptable to the Parties. If the amount in controversy exceeds one million dollars ($1,000,000.00), then a three-person panel of arbitrators with similar qualifications shall preside rather than a sole arbitrator, unless the Parties agree in writing that the dispute shall be decided by a sole arbitrator. The sole arbitrator (or panel) shall be selected by mutual agreement of the Parties, or, if the Parties cannot agree upon an arbitrator within ten (10) days, then each Party shall select an arbitrator who shall confer and select a third arbitrator to serve. If a three-person panel is required, each Party shall select an arbitrator and the two arbitrators shall together designate a third to serve with them on such panel. The arbitrator shall issue a short written statement (not to exceed 15 pages, excluding exhibits) setting forth its decision and reasons therefore. The Parties agree that the arbitrator's award shall be final and may be filed with and enforced as a final judgment by any court of competent jurisdiction.

- 30.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing, in any dispute concerning Confidential Information and Intellectual Property, Skynamo may elect to have the dispute resolved by a court of competent jurisdiction and upon Skynamo's commencement of any such action, any arbitration then pending shall be stayed, insofar as it concerns Skynamo's Confidential Information or Intellectual Property. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Customer acknowledges that irreparable injury may result to Skynamo in the event that Customer fails to perform its obligations under this Agreement with respect to Confidential Information of Skynamo or any Skynamo Affiliate or Intellectual Property and agrees that, in such event, Skynamo shall be entitled, in addition to any other remedies and damages available to it, to seek interim injunctive relief to restrain the breach or compel the performance of this Agreement.
- 30.5 The Parties consent and agree to the exclusive jurisdiction of the tribunals mentioned in this clause 30, and waive any and all objections to such forums, including but not limited to objections based on improper venue or inconvenient forum.
- 30.6 Each of the Parties hereby unconditionally waives any right to a jury trial with respect to and in any action, proceeding, claim, counterclaim, demand, dispute or other matter whatsoever arising out of this agreement.
- 30.7 The statute of limitations with respect to any claim or matter submitted to arbitration shall be suspended as of the date of a demand for arbitration hereunder (or, if not determinable, as of the date of receipt of such request), and shall be tolled until the date of any formal settlement agreement entered into by the Parties or the date of any final determination issued by an arbitrator, as the case may be, but in any event not longer than six (6) months from the date such statute of limitations was suspended, unless the Parties specifically agree in writing to a different tolling period.

- 31.9 Skynamo may propose amendments to these Terms of Use at any time by providing notice to the Customer in writing (including via e-mail). If the Customer does not respond to the notification of the proposed amendments within fourteen calendar days, the amendment will be deemed to have been accepted by the Customer and shall take effect and form part of the Agreement. In the event Customer informs Skynamo that it does not accept the proposed amendments, the proposed amendments will not take effect and the existing terms will continue in full force and effect.
- 31.10 Save for the provisions of clause 31.9, no alteration, cancellation or addition to the Agreement shall be of any force or effect unless reduced to writing and signed by all Parties to this Agreement or their duly authorised representatives.
